

BIO

Hon. Reginald Neal is a judge for the Los Angeles County Superior Court in California. He was appointed to the bench by Governor Gavin Newsom in 2021.

Prior to his appointment, Neal served as a deputy district attorney with the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office since 2008. For his work as a prosecutor, Neal was recognized by the Anti-Defamation League of Los Angeles, having received their Helene and Joseph Sherwood Prize in 2021.

He also worked for two years as a deputy attorney with the California Department of Transportation (2006 to 2008) and was as associate insurance compliance officer at the California department of insurance before that (2001 to 2005).

Neal received a Bachelor of Science degree (Mechanical Engineering) from the California State University, Northridge. He went to Complete a J.D. at Pacific Coast University School of Law. He was admitted to the United States Patent and Trademark Office in 2004 and was admitted to California Bar in 2005.