

Judge Gary D. Roberts currently serves in a hybrid family settlement-homecourt in Department Y in Van Nuys. Prior to that, he was assigned to a full-time settlement court in Van Nuys and a homecourt in Stanley Mosk.

Before his appointment to the Superior Court in 2018, Judge Roberts served as Executive Vice President and head of the Fox Group Legal Department for more than 20 years. In that capacity, he represented Fox on the General Counsel committee of the Motion Picture Association of America and oversaw intellectual property, content protection and security, labor relations and employment, state and local government affairs, privacy, investigations and physical security, and litigation for the Fox entertainment companies. That included essentially all of Fox except for Fox News, for which he accepts neither the credit nor the blame.

Before joining Fox, Judge Roberts practiced for eight years at the Los Angeles law firm of Munger, Tolles & Olson, where he was a litigator. He also clerked on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit in New Orleans.

Judge Roberts is a past Board Chair of Bet Tzedek, where he served for many years as a director and volunteer. He is an active member and lay leader in many areas at the All Saints' Episcopal Church in Beverly Hills, including medical mission work as a Spanish interpreter in Honduras for more than 20 years.

Judge Roberts received a BA in International Affairs from Texas Christian University and is a graduate of the University of Texas School of Law. He has lived happily in Los Angeles since 1984 but loves to spend as much time as possible with family and friends in Texas and in Buenos Aires, Argentina.
