Dvorah Markman is an attorney practicing consensual dispute resolution in Family Law. She was a Deputy District Attorney and later a Criminal Defense Attorney before coming to Family Law as a litigator in 1985. Since 2001, her practice has been exclusively Family Law dispute resolution, including Mediation and Collaborative practice. Dvorah is the co-founder of the 4th Thursday Joint Mediator/Retired Judicial Officer Mandatory Settlement Conference Volunteer Program; was a member of the Formation Committee for the Los Angeles Collaborative Family Law Association (LACFLA); and a past Chair of the Family Law Section of the L.A. County Bar. She has continuously participated as a Department 2 settlement officer and pro bono fee arbitrator for the Los Angeles County Bar and the L.A. Superior Court. She has been a participant in educational seminars for LACFLA, the Los Angeles County Bar Association, California State Bar and the Beverly Hills Bar.
